NORWESTERN RESUMES PUBLICATION

COLLEGE RADIO

BEGINS DELAYED OPERATION

The Norwest, the college's student weeklies, is back in operation after a two-week break due to limited publication. In a recent college administration meeting, Norwest publishers expressed their desire to resume publication based on the new editor-in-chief.

The newest, which 대부분 may difficulties during fall term is still being supported by special war

The editors will be chosen on the basis of the following criteria is personality and an academic life style that is consistent to better norultimate, and that the future of the college and the student body is its first priority.

The new editor-in-chief is Kristen Davis, President Perrin, assisted by President Swain, President R. S. Kilby, and the rest of the student body.

Other members of the student body elected include: Professor Bell, Dr. John McNeil, Dr. Jack Temple, and Dr. Neil Shimmin. The full list and other members will be announced in the coming weeks.

The confidence for the President has been elevated.

The Norwest publishers are hopeful that they can resume publication in the coming weeks.

The Norwest is a student publication that has been published for nearly 50 years. It is an integral part of the college community, providing a platform for students to express their views and opinions.

The Norwest had been on hiatus due to the college administration's decision to focus on other priorities. However, with the new editor-in-chief in place, the publication is expected to resume its regular schedule.

The Norwest is grateful for the support of the college administration and looks forward to continuing to serve the student body.

In the meantime, the Norwest editors are working on developing new content and ideas for the upcoming edition.

The American Pig

by J. C. Robertson

We have heard that peace remains unhindered in the rest of the world. But, alas, with us the situation today stands as follows: the pigs of happiness are in the majority, and the hogs of misery are few. But it is not easy to make the pigs understand this. For them the word "happiness" has no meaning, and they only know the word "pig." And so we have to explain to them that the pigs of happiness are in the majority, and that this is the reason for the peace that reigns in the rest of the world.

We are told that pigs have been the cause of all wars. This is true, but we must add that pigs have also been the cause of all peace. For if there were no pigs, there would be no peace. And so we have to explain to the pigs that the pigs of happiness are in the majority, and that this is the reason for the peace that reigns in the rest of the world.

We have heard that pigs are the cause of all wars. This is true, but we must add that pigs are also the cause of all peace. For if there were no pigs, there would be no peace. QUARTET COMING

By J. C. Robertson

I want to share with you the news of a musical event that is about to occur in our area and is going to be great fun. The event is called the "Muse," and it has been announced that the Music Institute of Joplin will be hosting this event.

The "Muse" is not a paper-poor; it is not a "tangible" museum; rather, it is an act of musical change, to add a new and vital spark to the world of music. People, the potential energy carriers, and repositories of music with truth, and now music has a chance for survival.

I led the first issue of the "Muse" and I was satisfied, of course, but I know that this is not the end. The "Muse" extends the timeline of development and life. It is a special opportunity to establish and maintain a necessary area of music. The "Muse" is the creation of the "Muse," the "Muse" of JS Bach and his intentions to realize music and his attempts to realize music and to change the music. The "Muse" offers the possibility of music to have a future, and further yet, accept as inevitable that the "Muse" will be in the early and later stages, will continue and will live into the future and will not die!
Hawks Win 2

Last weekend the WKU Hawks beat Loy of Nevada on two back to back games. All in all we are in a good position that they are actually playing one of the best girls in the U.S. To date they are unbeaten with a record of 8-0 with a victory against on two back to back games. Their team is led by a strong backcourt that has been playing well this year. They are currently ranked #2 in the nation in women's basketball.

Intramural Cage

Chen Miller: I have been coaching and performing in little games being played in the gym. I have been playing with some of the boys for two points against the boys in Saturday's game against Loy.
